

Greater Springfield Gets Big Tick from Small Business Minister

There was some great B2B or business to business activity, when Queensland's Minister for Innovation, Science and the Digital Economy and Minister for Small Business joined the Greater Springfield Chamber of Commerce for lunch.

Leeanne Enoch drew a large crowd at Brookwater Golf and Country Club and provided some interesting advice for all small businesses generally to have an online presence. "if you don't have that then you are just about invisible to customers and everyone else" the Minister warned.

The Greater Springfield Chamber of Commerce is now the largest in the region, dwarfing neighbouring chambers including Ipswich. Speaking earlier to the Greater Springfield Daily Record the minister said, "Springfield is a very interesting place where small businesses are being supported and which makes room for great creativity and the ability to look at things a bit differently."

For photos: <http://www.greaterspringfield.com.au/greater-springfield-gets-big-tick-small-business-minister/s>