I was not impressed with the additional tax I was paying during the financial year and my accountant suggested to speak to Glen who can explain how obtaining an investment property could provide me with some assistance to alleviate the pain.

I then met Glen who was fantastic. He was able to provide me with the ways that an investment property would be beneficial to myself.

After a study of the figures involved, I asked Glen to go ahead with assisting me to obtain a refund instead of paying extra tax.

Things went smoothly when Glen was in control. He kept me updated with how it was going week after week.

Before it was completed, there were people lined up to move in for the agreed rental price that he provided to me.

If have to hand it to Glen and all his colleagues. They did everything by the timeline he provided and he had people lined up to move in before it was all completed.

I did not have any problems at all. It was very easy for myself.

This will be of some benefit to me for the next few years. If I need another investment property, I will not have any hesitations to ask Glen to assist me again.

Thank you and your colleagues for your prompt assistance
